

MICHAEL GAYDOS RETIRES

Michael Gaydos (right) receives a Proclamation from Town of Newburgh Deputy Supervisor Scott Manley.

On Saturday, August 20th, a Retirement Party was held for Michael Gaydos, Business Manager for Local 17 Ironworkers at the Falkirk Estate & Country Club.

During the Retirement Party, Deputy Supervisor Scott Manley presented a Proclamation to Michael Gaydos on behalf of the Town of Newburgh. This Proclamation was signed by the entire Town of Newburgh Town Board including the Town Supervisor Gil Piaquadio, Deputy Supervisor/Councilman Scott Manley, Councilwoman Elizabeth “Betty” Greene, Councilman Paul Ruggiero, and Councilman Anthony LoBiondo; and Town Clerk Lisa Vance-Ayers.

Michael Gaydos has been a lifetime Town of Newburgh resident who has been the Business Manager of Local 17 Ironworkers for over 22 years. Michael achieved the rank of Eagle Scout and served as a Little League Coach for the Town of Newburgh. He and his organization generously donated their time and talent to the Town by constructing bridges at Chadwick Lake Park and creating stairs for the Town of Newburgh’s Justice Court.

In honor of Michael Gaydos’ commendable service, Saturday, August 20, 2022 was declared Michael Gaydos Day in the Town of Newburgh.

Town of Newburgh Supervisor Gil Piaquadio thanks Michael Gaydos for his generosity to the Town of Newburgh.

Supervisor Piaquadio and the Town Board Members wish Michael Gaydos a happy retirement.
