Officer Gregory Frey sworn in as Town of Newburgh Police Officer by the Honorable Richard Clarino.

At the September 12th, Town of Newburgh Town Board Meeting, Officers Brandon Abrams, William Fiordalisi, and Gregory Frey were sworn in as Town of Newburgh Police Officers by the Hon. Richard Clarino at the Town of Newburgh Town Hall. The new Police Officers took their oath in the presence of a room filled with supporting friends, family, and fellow officers.

Officer Abram's mother, Officer Fiordalisi's wife, and Officer Frey's mother held the Bible while they were sworn in by Town Justice Richard Clarino. In addition, Officer Fiordalisi's adorable baby girl watched attentively as he was sworn in.

Notably, it was 39 years ago on this same date, September 12th, and in this same room that Town of Newburgh Deputy Supervisor & Councilman Scott Manley was sworn in as a Town of Newburgh Police Officer.

Town Supervisor Gil Piaquadio and the Town of Newburgh Town Board Members welcomed the new Police Officers to the Town of Newburgh Police Department and congratulated them on their achievement.
