

EAGLE SCOUT OWEN SCOTT

Eagle Scout Owen Scott receives a Certificate of Achievement from Town of Newburgh Supervisor Gil Piaquadio and Councilwoman Elizabeth Greene.

On August 15th, Owen Scott was honored as an Eagle Scout at Cronomer Valley Fire Department Firehouse, located at 296 North Plank Road in the Town of Newburgh.

Town of Newburgh Supervisor and Councilwoman Elizabeth Greene presented a Certificate of Achievement to Owen Scott for his outstanding accomplishment.

Councilwoman Elizabeth Greene congratulated Owen for his remarkable achievement and shared that when she served as a committee member, achieving an Eagle Scout rank was heavily weighed during the candidate selection process for entry into the Military Academy at West Point.

Town Supervisor Gil Piaquadio stated that “by earning the Eagle Scout rank, Owen is obviously a leader and will have a successful life.” Supervisor Piaquadio also thanked Owen’s parents for their support and applauded them. Moreover, Supervisor Piaquadio complimented Owen and his parents by saying, “the apple never falls far from the tree.”

The Eagle Scout Award is scouting’s highest honor. On average, only 4% of eligible Boys Scout achieve this rank. Owen celebrated this outstanding achievement with fellow scouts and supporting family and friends.
